The advertisement is a screenshot of the Manuscript Peer-Review Process (MPRP) website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the following links: About MPRP, Journals, Support and Training, Contact us, Track article status, Register, and Login. The main content area features a section titled "Manuscript Peer-Review Process" with a sub-header "Manuscript Peer-Review Process". The text describes the MPRP as a web-based portal accessible 24/7, providing editorial services, journal pre-publication services, editorial workflow, and post-publication services. It mentions that the platform is a single independent platform, no software installation is required, and only requires a username and password. A small illustration shows a person sitting at a desk with a laptop, surrounded by icons representing various aspects of the publication process. Below the main text, there is a section titled "Why MPRP?" with a sub-header "Why MPRP?". The text in this section is partially obscured but appears to mention that the submission portal helps with a user-friendly platform to submit your research.
